PUBLIC ADVERTISEMENTS

FOREST DEPARTMENT

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Abstract Notification dated 22nd April 1937.

The attention of those to whom it may concern, is hereby invited to the detailed notification No. E. 223-810-36, dated 19th April 1937, regarding the holding of the auction sale between the 10th May and 3rd June 1937 at the respective District Head Quarters, of the right of collecting and transporting Thangadi and Kakke bark from the lands at the disposal of Government in the several Taluks and Sub-Taluks of the State, during the period from 1st July 1937 to 30th June 1939, published on pages 565-568 of Part VI of the Mysore Gazette, dated 22nd April 1937.

Erratum Notification.

Erratum to Notification No. E. 223-810—36, dated 19th April 1937, published on pages 565 to 568 of Part VI of the Mysore Gazette, dated 22nd April 1937.

Substitute the following in place of the existing clause 5 of the above Notification.—

"Bidders who are not residents of Mysore State and who do not possess unencumbered property in Mysore State at least to the extent of the estimated value of the lease unit for which they intend bidding, should, before they are allowed to bid, either deposit with the Officer conducting the sale half the estimated amount of the lease, to the nearest hundred rupees, as earnest money or they should produce a local surety fully solvent to the extent of the highest bid likely to be had at the conclusion of the sale. The bond to be taken from the surety should be on a stamp paper, the stamp payable being governed by the provisions of the Stamp Regulation. In cases where the foreign bidders deposit half the estimated amount of the lease, the usual deposit of Rs. 200 is unnecessary, and in cases where they produce a local surety the usual deposit of Rs. 200 should also be recovered from them. In the former case the remaining amount of the lease must be paid, before the expiry of half the period covered by the lease, in two equal quarterly instalments, when the lease is for one year, and in two equal half yearly instalments, when the lease is for two years."

M. MACHAYA,
Chief Conservator of Forests.

BANGALORE DISTRICT.

SALE OF TIMBER.

Notification dated 24th April 1937.

It is hereby notified for general information that the undermentioned kinds and quantities of timber will be sold by public auction under the following conditions at the Government Sandal Koti, Sankey's Lodge, Malleswaram, Bangalore, by the District Forest Officer, Bangalore District, or any other officer deputed by him, on Monday the 24th May 1937 at 2 P.M.

Sl. No.	Kind of Timber	Quantity		Remarks
		No.	C.ft.
1	Dhuma scantlings	406	47½	More or less.
2	Teak do	33	9⅞
3	Jungle do	8	2¼

Conditions.

1. Each bidder shall place a deposit of Rs. 25 with the Officer conducting the sale but defaulters to the Department will not be allowed to bid at the sales.

In the case of purchasers of timber not exceedng Rs. 200 in value, initial deposit of Rs. 25 in value need not be insisted upon provided that the full purchase money is paid in cash on the spot.

2. Any person bidding at the sale may be required by the Officer conducting the sale to state whether he is bidding on his own behalf or as an Agent, and in the latter case, to produce a written authority duly signed by the Principal.

3. The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser but the Officer conducting the sale can reject any bid or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reason to the intending purchasers.

4. Immediately after the lot is knocked down to him, the successful bidder shall sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought such lot and of having accepted the terms of sale as herein specified. The sale is subject to the Chief Conservator of Forests in Mysore's sanction if the amount exceeds Rs. 1,000.

5. After conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay 10 per cent of the amount in cash to the Officer conducting the sale and obtain in return, from him a receipt vouching for the payment of the one-tenth value as well as the initial deposit of Rs. 25. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the initial deposit of Rs. 25, shall be forfeited to Government and the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to resell the timber purchased by such defaulter who shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not participate any profit from such resale. The amount due by such defaulter on account of loss from resale shall be recovered from him as revenue demand under section 79 of the Mysore Forest Regulation. In calculating such losses, the initial deposit forfeited to Government shall not be taken into account.

In the case of resales for default of payment of value where no bidders are forthcoming, it will be open to the District Forest Officer to fix such price, as may appear to him to be reasonable and to proceed for the recovery from the defaulter of the balance, if any, after deducting the price so fixed from the original sale amount. A registered notice should be issued to the defaulter intimating the price fixed by the District Forest Officer for the unsold wood and the amount still due from him which will be recovered as arrears of Land Revenue.

6. The deposit tendered by the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned immediately after the sales are concluded, those of successful bidders will be kept as security for the due fulfilment of conditions of contract.

7. The full value of the timber purchased shall be paid for within a week from the date of confirmation of the sale.

8. If the full sale amount is not paid within the time fixed the initial deposit and other moneys already paid shall be forfeited to Government. The timber will be resold at the risk of the original purchaser.

9. No timber lot will be permitted to be removed until it is paid for in full and sold stamped by the Officer in charge of Sandal Koti, Bangalore.

Interest will be charged on all belated payments at 6¼ per cent per annum, from the date of its falling due up to the date of payment.

N.B.—Quantities noted are only approximate.

Conditions.

1. Each bidder shall place a deposit of Rs. 200 with the officer conducting the sale. But defaulters to the department will not be allowed to bid at the sales.

In the case of purchasers of timber not exceeding Rs. 200 in value, this deposit will not be insisted upon, provided that the full purchase money is paid in cash on the spot.

2. Any person bidding at the sale may be required by the officer conducting the sale to state whether he is bidding on his own behalf or as an agent, and in the latter case, to produce a written authority duly signed by the principal.

3. The highest bidder shall ordinarily be the purchaser, but the officer conducting the sale can reject any bid or stop the sale at any stage without assigning any reason to the intending purchasers.

4. Immediately after the lot is knocked down to him, the successful bidder shall sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot bought by him in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as admission on his part of having bought such lot and of having accepted the terms of the sale as herein specified. The sale is subject to the confirmation of the Conservator of Forests, if the amount exceeds Rs. 1,000 and to that of the District Forest Officer in other cases.

5. After conclusion of the sale, each purchaser shall pay 10 per cent of the amount in cash to the officer conducting the sale and obtain in return from him a receipt vouching for the payment of the one-tenth value as well as the initial deposit of Rs. 200. Should any purchaser fail to comply with this rule, the initial deposit of Rs. 200 shall at once be forfeited to Government and the officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to resell the timber purchased by such defaulter who shall be required to make good any loss, but shall not participate in any profit from such resale. The amount due by such defaulter on account of loss from resale shall be recovered from him as a revenue demand under Section 79 of the Mysore Forest Regulation. In calculating such losses, the initial deposit forfeited to Government shall not be taken into account.

6. The deposits tendered by the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned immediately after the sales are concluded, those of the successful bidders being lodged in the Savings Bank as security deposit.

7. The full value of all timber purchased shall be paid for within 30 days after the date of sale or within 15 days after the date of notice of confirmation of the sale, whichever is later. The moneys shall be paid into such treasury as the District Forest Officer may direct, within the time specified.

8. If the amount is not fully paid for by the purchaser before the dates fixed above, the initial deposit as well as the other moneys already paid in shall be forfeited to Government and all or any portion of the timber not fully paid for shall be resold at the risk of the purchaser in the manner prescribed for default of payment of one-tenth value in clause 5 supra.

9. No timber lot shall be permitted to be removed by the purchaser unless it has been paid for in full, calculated at the rates at which the timber is knocked down to him at the time of sale, including the 10 per cent deposit paid for the lot at the time of the sale; and no timber shall be removed from the depot unless a permit is obtained from the Forest Officer in charge of the depot. The earnest money will not be adjusted towards the value of timber until 90 per cent of the purchase money over and above the security deposit has been paid.

10. Timber purchased should be removed as early as possible, and in no case should it be allowed to remain longer than 90 days after 15th May 1937. Timber not removed after purchase will remain in the depot at the risk of the purchaser from the date of the confirmation of the sale.

11. If the timber is not removed within the time allowed, the same may, after ten days' notice to the purchaser, be sold in public auction and the proceeds will be given to the purchaser after defraying all the expenses in connection with the resale.

12. The deposit of Rs. 200 will remain as security for the due fulfilment of all and every one of the terms of sale, for the breach of any of which by the purchaser, the District Forest Officer shall be entitled to forfeit the deposit in whole or in part and in the event of such forfeiture, the sum so forfeited shall be immediately made good by the purchaser so long as the transaction is not finally closed. The security deposit or the balance thereof, if any, shall be returned to the purchaser after the full value of timber purchased has been paid for and the timber fully removed.

13. Interest will be charged on all belated payments at 6¼ per cent per annum from the date of their falling due up to the date of payment.
